

I agree that Mex Moto Tours, Ken Grantham, and/or any of their representatives are not responsible for the accuracy of any information, or use of the information contained in this web site. I know that motorcycling carries possible risk of personal injury. I know that there are natural and man-made hazards, hazardous highway conditions, environmental and weather conditions, vehicular risks, and risks which, in combination with my actions and/or decisions, can cause me serious, or possible even fatal injury. I agree that I, as a participant, do take responsibility in understanding and accepting all risks, conditions, and hazards. I agree that I am responsible for my safety while I participate in this event. Family members, teammates, heirs, executors, administrators, or anyone else who might claim on my behalf, covenant not to sue and WAIVE, RELEASE, and DISCHARGE Kenneth Grantham, Mex Moto Tours, or any of their representatives, from all claims or liabilities, whether seen or unforeseen, for death, personal injury, or property damage arising out of, or in the course of, my participation in this event. I also understand that I take responsibility in stating I have the appropriate experience to participate in this type of adventure motorcycle activity. It is also my responsibility to wear appropriate safety apparel, motorcycle safety helmet, safety footwear, and carry with me appropriate food, hydration, and personal needs for terrain, weather, medication, and type of motorcycle event or activity I am participating in. I understand it is my responsibility to come prepared for the type of motorcycle event for which I am participating, which I understand can be strenuous activity.
